GDP Growth against implemented infrastructures

As Bolivia seems to be disconnected from the rest of the Amazon, its GDP did not see its full potentiality of a resurgence with the implementation of IRRSA. Countries with major port cities, connected to this network saw a dramatic economic increase, even those with minute values such as Suriname and Guyana.

Brazil ×3.5
$2.25 Trillion
$144 Billion (Pre-IRRSA)

Suriname ×7
$4.7 Billion
$172 Million (Pre-IRRSA)

Venezuela ×3.25
$58.4 Billion
$227 Billion

Guyana ×3.9
$1.8 Billion
$72 Million (Pre-IRRSA)

Colombia ×3.7
$369.8 Billion
$39 Billion

Ecuador ×4.6
$14.5 Billion
$48 Billion

Peru ×3.8
$397 Billion
$53 Billion

Bolivia ×1.5
$27 Billion
$18 Billion
